

KCEE Financial Literacy Summit
Co-Hosted with the EKU Center for Economic Education
Friday, June 26, 2015, 8:30 am – 3:30 pm
At The Corbin Center
222 Corbin Center Dr.
Corbin, KY

Teachers, grades K-12! Register today for the KCEE Life Fundamental$ Financial Literacy Summit! Early Bird Registration is $75 through May 15 and increases to $90 on May 16.*

Register online today at www.econ.org/summit15.

This Financial Literacy Summit is designed to equip Kentucky educators, grades K-12 with the knowledge, tools and classroom resources to teach students to become financially savvy and in control of their financial futures.

- + Earn 6 hours professional development
- + Receive FREE curriculum resources and materials in each session – including “Virtual Economics 4.5” which sells for $159.95
- + Learn to teach to required consumerism and financial literacy standards
- + Lots of tech sessions (so bring your laptop or tablet!)
- + Lunch included
- + Concurrent sessions include best practices by experienced teachers, curriculum sponsors, university professors, and financial industry leaders
- + Exhibitors and door prizes

brought to you by
Kentucky Council on Economic Education
Eastern Kentucky University Center for Economic Education

in partnership with
Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis - Louisville Branch
Kentucky Department of Financial Institution
Kentucky Jump$tart Coalition and our sponsors

Questions? Contact Susan Sandage @ susan@econ.org or Joseph Bianca at jfbianca@bellarmine.edu or 502-272-8707.

*Teachers in the Corbin Independent School District will receive a full refund thanks to in-kind funding provided by your school district. You still have to pay to register but you receive your check back after attending for the entire day.